

Blackbox testing is testing the functionality of the product without the knowledge of the internal structure.

We can use QTP,Selenium,Jmeter

In checkout process we can

- On guest checkout , it must request for valid address to ship to.
- On registered user, it must direct to the payment process.
- On invalid or missing values , it must display a n error message.
- Must ask all the available payment methods.
- Must place the items on order as soon as it detects that the payment is done.